MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Between

NEHRU GRAM BHARATI DEEMED TO BE UNIVERSITY

And

VEDSAR INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED

This Memorandum of Understanding ("MoU") is made and entered into on this 3rd day of November, 20, at Research Center, NGBDU, Prayagraj.

BETWEEN

Nehru Gram Bharati Deemed to be University, a deemed-to-be university established and recognised under the applicable laws of India, having its office at Jamunipur-Kotwa - Dubawal, hereinafter referred to as the "University", which expression shall, unless repugnant to the context, include its authorised representatives, successors and permitted assigns;

AND

Vedsar India Private Limited, a company incorporated under the applicable laws of India, having its corporate office at B-108 D, Sector 62, Noida, Uttar Pradesh – 201309, India, and its regional office at 47C/6/2C/1, C.Y. Chintamani Road, George Town, Prayagraj, Uttar Pradesh – 211002, hereinafter referred to as "Vedsar", which expression shall, unless repugnant to the context, include its authorised representatives, successors and permitted assigns.

The University and Vedsar shall individually be referred to as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties".

1. PURPOSE OF THE MoU

The purpose of this MoU is to establish a framework for cooperation between the Parties in areas including information technology, digital transformation, educational technology, institutional supplies, event management, student internships, skill development, industry interaction, career guidance and other mutually identified areas.

The Parties intend to facilitate meaningful industry–academia engagement, enhance students' practical exposure, support institutional development and explore opportunities for collaborative projects and professional services.

2. OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this MoU are to:

03/11/26

03/11/26

a. Encourage cooperation between academia and industry.

b. Facilitate access to technology solutions, professional expertise and industry-oriented learning opportunities.

c. Promote students' practical knowledge, employability and exposure to real-world working environments.

d. Explore opportunities for digitalisation, modernisation and improvement of institutional infrastructure and services.

e. Facilitate collaboration in events, training programmes, workshops, seminars and other institutional initiatives.

f. Establish a structured framework for identifying, evaluating and implementing mutually agreed projects and activities.

3. AREAS OF COLLABORATION

The Parties may collaborate in the following areas, subject to mutual discussion, feasibility, availability of resources and applicable policies.

3.1 Information Technology and Digital Transformation

Vedsar may provide proposals, consultancy, development, implementation and support services in areas such as:

- Website, web portal and mobile application development.
- Customised software, ERP, HRMS, CRM and institutional management solutions.
- Digitalisation and automation of academic and administrative processes.
- IT infrastructure, networking, cloud solutions, cybersecurity and system integration.
- Software maintenance, technical support and other technology-related requirements.

3.2 Smart Classrooms and Educational Technology

The Parties may explore opportunities relating to:

- Interactive smart boards, digital displays and smart classroom solutions.
- Computers, laptops, printers, networking equipment and associated hardware.
- Digital learning tools, teaching aids and technology-enabled learning environments.
- Installation, configuration, maintenance and technical support for educational equipment.

3.3 Educational, Institutional and General Supplies

Vedsar may submit proposals for the supply of educational products, institutional equipment, laboratory equipment, furniture, office supplies, IT hardware and other goods or services required by the University, subject to the University's specifications, approval processes and applicable procurement rules.

03/11/26

03/11/26

Any procurement or supply shall be undertaken only against appropriate approvals and applicable purchase orders, contracts or other authorised documents.

3.4 Student Internships and Practical Training

The Parties may facilitate internship and practical training opportunities for eligible students in suitable disciplines, including:

- Software and web development.
- Mobile application development and software testing.
- UI/UX design, digital marketing and related digital skills.
- IT support, networking and cybersecurity.
- Event planning, event coordination and management.
- Business development, project coordination and other relevant professional areas.

The Parties may jointly identify suitable internship formats, duration, eligibility criteria, learning objectives, supervision arrangements and evaluation methods.

Internships shall be subject to available opportunities, student eligibility, applicable policies and the separate terms communicated for the relevant programme. This MoU does not guarantee internships, employment or placement to any student.

3.5 Employment and Placement Assistance

Vedsar may, subject to business requirements and available vacancies, consider eligible University students and graduates for employment opportunities within its organisation or through its professional network.

The Parties may also explore placement-oriented activities, including recruitment interactions, career guidance, interview preparation, employability sessions and industry networking.

All recruitment decisions shall remain subject to the relevant employer's requirements, selection procedures, eligibility criteria and applicable laws. No guaranteed employment or placement obligation is created by this MoU.

3.6 Guest Lectures, Seminars and Workshops

The Parties may jointly organise or facilitate:

- Motivational and career-development lectures.
- Guest lectures by industry professionals, entrepreneurs and subject-matter experts.
- Workshops on emerging technologies, artificial intelligence, cybersecurity, cloud computing and digital transformation.
- Sessions on entrepreneurship, innovation, leadership, communication and workplace readiness.
- Industry interaction programmes, technical demonstrations and professional development activities.

03/11/2026

03/11/26

The topics, speakers, schedules, venue and arrangements shall be decided mutually for each programme.

3.7 Events and Institutional Programmes

Vedsar may submit proposals to plan, organise, manage or support University events, including seminars, conferences, workshops, cultural programmes, annual functions, exhibitions, technical festivals and other institutional activities.

Support may include event planning, production, stage and audio-visual arrangements, branding, logistics, coordination and related services, as mutually agreed for each event.

3.8 Innovation, Projects and Entrepreneurship

The Parties may explore:

- Student projects and industry-oriented assignments.
- Startup awareness, innovation and entrepreneurship programmes.
- Technology demonstrations and project mentoring.
- Collaborative research or development initiatives, where mutually agreed and feasible.
- Competitions, practical assignments and other student engagement activities.

Any research, development or intellectual property arrangements requiring specific terms shall be documented separately.

3.9 Consultancy and Other Institutional Requirements

The Parties may identify additional opportunities involving institutional consultancy, operational improvements, technology implementation, project-based services, infrastructure-related requirements and other areas falling within their respective capabilities.

Any additional activity may be included by mutual written agreement without requiring a complete replacement of this MoU.

4. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1 Responsibilities of the University

The University may:

a. Identify and communicate institutional requirements and areas of potential collaboration.

b. Nominate an authorised coordinator for communication and coordination.

c. Facilitate access to relevant departments and stakeholders, subject to institutional policies and approvals.

d. Identify suitable students for internships, training and other mutually agreed programmes.

03/11/2026

03/11/26

e. Review proposals submitted by Vedsar and communicate its requirements, observations and decisions through authorised channels.

f. Provide necessary approvals and information for agreed activities, subject to applicable policies, confidentiality obligations and data protection requirements.

4.2 Responsibilities of Vedsar

Vedsar may:

a. Assess the University's requirements and provide relevant technical, commercial or implementation proposals.

b. Offer suitable technology solutions, consultancy, institutional supplies and professional services within its capabilities.

c. Explore internship, training, guest lecture and industry interaction opportunities.

d. Nominate an authorised representative for coordination and follow-up.

e. Execute specific assignments accepted by Vedsar in accordance with mutually agreed scope, timelines, deliverables and contractual terms.

f. Maintain appropriate professional standards, confidentiality and compliance with applicable requirements while performing agreed activities.

5. FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS AND ABSENCE OF FINANCIAL COMMITMENT

5.1 No Automatic Financial Commitment: This MoU establishes a general framework for cooperation and does not, by itself, create any financial liability, payment obligation, minimum purchase commitment, revenue-sharing arrangement, investment obligation or expenditure commitment for either Party.

5.2 Separate Mutual Agreement: Any paid service, software development, consultancy, equipment supply, event management assignment, training programme or other commercial engagement shall be undertaken only after the Parties have mutually agreed in writing upon the applicable scope of work, fees or prices, taxes, payment terms, timelines, deliverables and other relevant conditions.

5.3 Project-Specific Documentation: Such arrangements may be recorded through a separate agreement, proposal accepted in writing, purchase order, work order, service order or other appropriate written instrument issued or approved by authorised representatives of the Parties.

5.4 No Obligation to Award or Accept Work: Nothing in this MoU shall oblige the University to award any particular contract, purchase goods or engage Vedsar for any assignment. Similarly, Vedsar shall not be obliged to undertake any project or supply unless it has accepted the relevant assignment in writing.

03/11/26

5.5 Voluntary Collaborative Activities: Any guest lecture, internship, workshop, training activity or other initiative proposed without a separate commercial arrangement shall be undertaken only where both Parties mutually agree on its scope, responsibilities, resources and any associated expenses in advance. Neither Party shall be presumed to provide any service, resource or reimbursement free of charge unless expressly agreed in writing.

5.6 Applicable Procedures: All purchases, contracts and commercial assignments shall remain subject to the University's applicable procurement policies, approval procedures and relevant laws.

6. COORDINATION AND IMPLEMENTATION

The Parties may nominate one or more coordinators to facilitate communication, identify areas of cooperation and review proposed activities.

The coordinators may discuss an annual or periodic collaboration plan identifying potential projects, training activities, events, supply requirements and other initiatives.

All activities shall be initiated only after the relevant approvals and, where applicable, project-specific written agreements have been completed.

7. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Each Party shall retain ownership of its pre-existing intellectual property, including software, source code, documentation, trademarks, designs, methodologies, materials and proprietary information.

Ownership, licensing, usage rights and transfer of any intellectual property developed specifically under an individual project shall be mutually agreed in writing before the commencement of that project.

Neither Party shall use the other Party's intellectual property except with appropriate authorisation or as otherwise agreed in writing.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY AND DATA PROTECTION

Each Party shall take reasonable measures to protect confidential information received from the other Party and shall use such information only for authorised purposes connected with the collaboration.

Neither Party shall disclose the other Party's confidential information to third parties without prior written consent, except where disclosure is required by law or to authorised personnel who need the information for the agreed purpose and are subject to appropriate confidentiality obligations.

Any access to student records, personal information, institutional systems or other protected data shall require appropriate authorisation and compliance with applicable data protection, cybersecurity and institutional policies.

03/11/2026

03/11/26

These obligations shall continue after the expiry or termination of this MoU for information that remains confidential, subject to applicable law.

9. USE OF NAMES, LOGOS AND PUBLICITY

Neither Party shall use the other Party's name, logo, trademark or institutional identity in advertising, publicity, press releases, promotional materials or public announcements without prior written approval.

Any joint announcement or publication relating to activities under this MoU shall be coordinated and approved by both Parties.

10. NATURE OF THE RELATIONSHIP

This MoU does not create a partnership firm, joint venture, agency, employer–employee relationship or exclusive arrangement between the Parties.

Each Party shall remain an independent entity and shall be responsible for its own personnel, internal operations, statutory obligations and decisions.

Neither Party shall represent that it has authority to bind the other Party unless such authority has been expressly granted in writing.

11. NON-EXCLUSIVITY

This MoU is non-exclusive. Either Party may collaborate with other institutions, organisations, service providers or businesses in similar or related areas, subject to its confidentiality obligations and any separately agreed restrictions applicable to a specific project.

12. COMPLIANCE AND STUDENT WELFARE

All activities under this MoU shall be conducted in accordance with applicable laws, University regulations, institutional policies and relevant professional standards.

Student participation in internships, training, events or other programmes shall be subject to suitable eligibility criteria, supervision and safety arrangements.

Any stipend, certification, academic credit, insurance, travel support or other student-related benefit shall be governed by the specific programme terms mutually agreed by the Parties.

13. TERM, RENEWAL AND TERMINATION

13.1 This MoU shall come into effect on the date of its execution by the duly authorised representatives of both Parties and shall remain valid for a period of three (3) years, unless terminated earlier in accordance with this clause.

03/11/2026

03/11/26

13.2 The Parties may extend or renew this MoU through mutual written consent.

13.3 Either Party may terminate this MoU by providing thirty (30) days' written notice to the other Party.

13.4 Termination or expiry of this MoU shall not automatically terminate any separate project agreement, purchase order or contract already executed by the Parties. The treatment of any ongoing assignment shall be governed by its respective terms or by a mutually agreed written arrangement.

13.5 Clauses relating to confidentiality, intellectual property, accrued rights and any other provisions intended to survive termination shall continue to apply to the extent required by their nature and applicable law.

14. AMENDMENTS AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

14.1 This MoU may be amended only by a written instrument signed by authorised representatives of both Parties.

14.2 The Parties shall endeavour to resolve any difference or dispute arising from this MoU through mutual discussion and good-faith negotiations between their authorised representatives.

14.3 If a dispute relating to a separately executed project agreement arises, the dispute resolution provisions of that agreement shall apply to the extent relevant.

14.4 Subject to applicable law and any mandatory jurisdictional requirements, disputes concerning this MoU shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the competent courts at Prayagraj, Uttar Pradesh, where legally permissible.

15. GENERAL PROVISIONS

a. This MoU records the broad understanding between the Parties concerning their proposed areas of cooperation.

b. Neither Party guarantees any minimum volume of business, number of projects, purchases, internships, placements or events under this MoU.

c. Neither Party shall be responsible for the acts or omissions of the other Party except as provided in a separate agreement or under applicable law.

d. Any notice under this MoU shall be sent to the respective official address or authorised email address notified by the relevant Party.

e. If any provision of this MoU is found invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue to apply to the extent permitted by law.

f. This MoU may be executed in counterparts, if accepted by both Parties and permitted under applicable law.
