

Report on Career Counseling Session by Regional Employment Exchange at Nehru Gram Bharati Deemed University (NGBDU)

After the approval from Honorable VC/Pro VC A Career Counseling Session was successfully organized today at the NGBDU campus as part of the pre-preparation for the upcoming 5-day Job Fair scheduled for November 2024. This Job Fair is set to be inaugurated by the Honorable Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh, marking a significant opportunity for students to connect with various industry professionals and potential employers.

We were privileged to have a distinguished team from the Regional Employment Exchange Office (REEO), who conducted the session with the aim of preparing students for the Job Fair. The REEO team included:

Vishwa Mohan Dwivedi – Instructor
Rama Shankar Bharti – Retired Deputy Director, Sewa Yojan
Shiv Shankar Bharti – Chief Assistant
Iqbal Ahmad – Senior Assistant
Sugreev Singh – Chief of Library

The session witnessed active participation from around 100 students from various streams, eager to gain insights and guidance to enhance their employability skills. The objective of the session was to equip the students with the necessary tools for career readiness, focusing on key aspects such as resume building, interview techniques, and effective communication skills.

The REEO members expressed their delight at witnessing the passion and dedication of the students, and they assured their full support in making the upcoming Job Fair one of the most successful career events in the region.

The CRC Cell extends its heartfelt gratitude to all the Heads of Departments, Deans, Directors, and Faculty Members, with a special thanks to Dr. Sittamma Madam for her gracious presence and unwavering support. Her encouragement and dedication truly added a personal touch to the event, making a significant impact on both the students and the team. The warmth and collaboration between the university and REEO were beautifully reflected in the enthusiasm and energy of everyone involved, and it's this spirit of unity that made the event truly memorable and successful.

